

TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

Society of Environmental Toxicology and Chemistry (SETAC)

PLEASE SIGN AND RETURN IMMEDIATELY TO SETAC

229 South Baylen Street, 2nd Floor

Pensacola, FL 32502 USA

T 850 469 1500 F 850 469 9778 E setac@setac.org

Tentative Title of Article/Paper: _____

Tentative Title of Publication
in Which Paper Will Appear: Pesticide Risk Assessment for Pollinators

Author(s)/Editor(s)
(hereafter referred to as "author"): Moriarty and Fischer, editors

By signing this copyright agreement for the article or paper listed above, the author warrants and represents to the Society of Environmental Toxicology and Chemistry (SETAC) that the article or paper is the author's original work and has not been published previously, and that the copyright has not been transferred to any other society, publisher, institution, or organization. The author also warrants and represents to SETAC that the article or paper contains no libelous or other unlawful statements, does not infringe upon the work of others, and will not be used to promote products for sale. The author also transfers and assigns to SETAC all related rights, including all common law rights, all claims of every nature, whether at law or in equity, by reason of infringement or otherwise, including the right to sue for copyright infringement anywhere in the world and recover for damages for any past, present, or future copyright infringement and to recover and retain any monies paid or received as a result of such infringement. Copyright to the above article or paper is hereby transferred to SETAC upon acceptance for publication, without limitation, including the creation of electronic versions. However, the following rights are reserved by the author:

1. The use, free of charge, of all or part of the author's article or paper in future works such as books or lectures.
2. Reproduction of the author's article or paper for personal use, provided the copies are not offered for sale. The author does not have the right to post the subject article or paper in electronic or digital form on any computer network.
3. All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.

PART A: Authorized signature

Sign on Part A signature line below unless you are a government employee who created the subject article or paper as part of your employment (if so, go to Part B).

If you are one author signing on behalf of all authors of the subject article or paper, check this box ☐ Your signature certifies that you are authorized to execute this transfer of copyright on behalf of all authors named above.

Author's Name (print)	Author's Signature	Date
-----------------------	--------------------	------

If your employer holds the rights to your work, your signature above indicates that you have your employer's permission to sign this agreement. If you do not have such permission, an authorized representative of your employer must sign on the line below.

Employer's Name/Title (print)	Authorized Signature	Date
-------------------------------	----------------------	------

PART B: Authorized signature – Government Employees

Sign on Part B signature line below if you are a government employee who created the subject article or paper as part of your employment.

Your signature certifies that the article or paper has been written in the course of employment by the United States Government so that no copyright exists or by the United Kingdom Government (Crown Copyright), the Canadian Government (Crown Copyright), or the government of another nation (please specify below signature), thus there is no transfer of copyright. Your signature also warrants that the article or paper named above is your original work and has not been published before, that it contains no libelous or other unlawful statements, and that it does not infringe on the rights of others.

If you are one author signing on behalf of all authors of the subject article or paper, check this box ☐ Your signature certifies that you are authorized to execute this transfer of copyright on behalf of all authors named above.

Author's Name (print)

Author's Signature

Date